The verb is 'broke' because that's what Harry actually did.

When a verb is affected by when something happens, this is called tense.

Describing something happening now is present tense.

FOR EXAMPLE

FOR EXAMPLE

First person singular = I was Second person singular = You were

REMEMBER!

Make sure you get the right tense in your sentence.

PROGRESSIVE

Grammar Aquarium

The progressive form of a verb usually describes things that are happening (or in progress).

The progressive is created by combining the verb 'to be' with the verb's present participle (usually ending in ing).

FOR EXAMPLE

John is talking in class.

Because 'is' is present tense, this is an example of the present progressive.

REMEMBER!

We can change 'is' to 'was' to create the past progressive.

NOUN PHRASES

Grammar Aquarium

A noun phrase is a group of words with a noun as its head.

We can build a noun phrase by adding words before it:

Cars
Convertible cars
New convertible cars

are lots of fun.

or after it

Cars with seats
Cars with leather seats

are lots of fun.

REMEMBER!

Find the noun that affects the verb to find the head.

STATEMENTS

Grammar Aquarium

A statement is a sentence that gives information and has a subject and a verb.

The subject will usually come first in a statement.

Contains the subject

Contains the verb

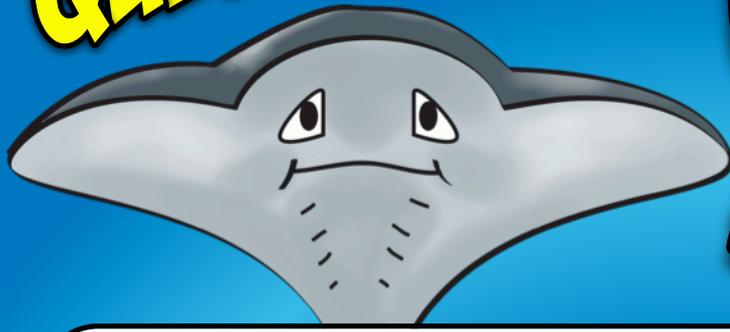

Bill
The cat
Chairs

hates Bill.
are comfortable.

REMEMBER!

Statements are the most common type of sentence.

QUESTIONS

Grammar Aquarium

Questions are a type of sentence that ask for information.

There are different types of questions.

Yes/no questions, or closed questions only need a yes or no answer.

Some questions start with who, what, why, when, where, or how and require more information.

Alternative questions need an answer connected to the question.

REMEMBER!

Statements can often be turned into questions by adding a question mark.

EXCLAMATIONS

Grammar Aquarium

Exclamations are sentences that show strong feeling.

To be considered an exclamation, the sentence must start with "how" or "what". It should also contain a verb.

FOR EXAMPLE

How beautiful you look today!

What a ridiculous decision you have made here!

REMEMBER!

Don't forget your exclamation mark.

COMMANDS

Grammar Aquarium

Commands give instructions.

They use the imperative form of verbs.

When using commands, the sentence doesn't always need a subject.

FOR EXAMPLE

Clean my shirt.

It is suggested that 'You' would be the subject (You clean my shirt).

REMEMBER!

Commands can work well with exclamation marks.

SUFFIXES

Grammar Aquarium

A suffix is a group of letters, placed at the end of a word to alter the meaning or function.

Different suffixes affect words in different ways.

FOR EXAMPLE

child + less = childless

The addition of the suffix 'less' changes the noun to an adjective.

FOR EXAMPLE

banana + s = bananas

The addition of the suffix 's' makes the noun plural.

REMEMBER!

Suffixes always go at the end.

APOSTROPHES

Grammar Aquarium

Apostrophes have two main uses.

An apostrophe for contraction tells us one or more letters have been replaced by an apostrophe.

FOR EXAMPLE

I don't care.

An apostrophe for possession tells us that something belongs to something else.

FOR EXAMPLE

Dave's iPad.

REMEMBER!

Don't use apostrophes to show plurals.

COMMAS

Grammar Aquarium

Commas can help to separate items in lists.

When separating items in lists, commas are placed between all of the items apart from the last two, which are normally separated by a conjunction.

FOR EXAMPLE

This sandwich has cheese, bacon, tomatoes and bananas.

REMEMBER!

Commas have other uses too.

COMPOUND SENTENCES

Grammar Aquarium

Compound sentences are a multi clause sentence. They are formed when we join two main clauses.

We join the two main clauses with a coordinating conjunction such as 'and', 'but' and 'or'.

FOR EXAMPLE

My friend bought a dog and it bit him.

REMEMBER!

We can often replace a coordinating conjunction with a semicolon.
